Stop delay

Function of the component:

With the function component stop delay, turning off consumers can be performed delayed. Results of a calculation (e.g. hysteresis component) can also be switched off delayed.

- Go to „Controls" in „Device configuration". Create a new control function with the green plus

- Go to „Functions" and create a new component with „Stop delay".

- Enter a name at „Name" e.g. air conditioning.

- Select your function component at „Sensor/Counter" e.g.: hysteresis of the stop delay.

- At „Interface" enter e.g.: DO_Relais.

- At „Delay" enter the desired start delay in seconds e.g. „10"

- Confirm with „Ok". Go to the device configuration an press „Save".